Section 1. Purpose and Enforcement Area

The purpose of this Title is to provide a safe and peaceful environment for the people of Dot Lake and for the overall well-being of the Dot Lake Tribe. It is the intention that people who disturb the health, safety, and welfare of the Village be brought before the Dot Lake Tribal Court for violations of the provisions in this Code, or, referred to state or federal officials for enforcement when appropriate. The provisions of this Code shall be enforced within a 10-mile radius of the Dot Lake Tribal Office, unless otherwise specifically delineated within a Chapter of this Code.

Section 2. Interpretation and Application of this Title

- A. Civil in Nature: The provisions in this Title shall be interpreted as civil in nature, and civil penalties applied.
- B. Apply to All Persons: The provisions of this Title apply to all persons who reside in or who enter into the Village of Dot Lake.
- C. Apply Equally: The provisions of this Title shall be applied equally to all persons who reside in or who enter into the Village of Dot Lake.

Section 3. Bringing Cases to the Dot Lake Tribal Court

Cases may be brought before the Dot Lake Tribal Court through Citations, Petitions, and Referrals.

- A. Citations: Cases may be cited to the Dot Lake Tribal Court by any Officer of the Dot Lake Department of Public Safety as provided in Chapter 2 of this Title.
- B. Petition: Any person may Petition to Use the Dot Lake Tribal Court for a violation that they have knowledge of. The Petition shall demonstrate that the person has sufficient knowledge and evidence that a violation occurred in order for the Court to consider holding a hearing on the case.
- C. Referrals: Cases may begin through referrals from other Tribes or through the State of Alaska Department of Law, Division of Juvenile Justice, or Judicial System.

Section 4. Definitions

For the purposes of this Title, the following words and terms shall have these meanings:

'Adult' is a person who is 18 or older.

'Assault' is knowingly inflicting bodily injury upon another person, placing a person in reasonable fear of being physically injured, and/or unwanted physical contact.

'Dangerous instrument' means any anything that, under the circumstances in which it is used, attempted to be used, or threatened to be used, is capable of causing death or serious physical injury.

'Deadly weapon' means any firearm, or anything designed for and capable of causing death or serious physical injury, including, but not limited to, a knife, axe, club, metal knuckles, or an explosive.

'Firearm' means a weapon, including a pistol, revolver, rifle, or shotgun, whether loaded or unloaded, operable or inoperable, designed for discharging a shot capable of causing death or serious physical injury.

'Harassment' includes a course of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose to intimidate, torment, annoy, alarm, disturb, or puts a person in fear of their safety. It also includes credible threats made with the intent and apparent ability to carry out the threat.

'Illegal drugs' means-controlled substances under State of Alaska law including drugs such as methamphetamines, heroin, cocaine, LSD, and psilocybin mushrooms. Also, prescription drugs that are used by someone other than the person for whom the drugs were prescribed, or are misused by the person to whom they are prescribed, are illegal drugs.

'Juvenile' is a person under the age of 18.

'Knowingly' a person acts 'knowingly' when they are aware of facts or circumstances with respect to conduct or to a circumstance involved in violating an offense described in this Title. A person who is intoxicated may not claim diminished responsibility for knowing facts and circumstances with respect to conduct or to a circumstance involved in violating an offense described in this Title.

'Licensed Vehicle' means any vehicle for which the State of Alaska requires a license.

'Minor' is a person under the age of 18.

'Negligence' A person acts with 'negligence' when they fail to behave with the level of care that someone of ordinary discretion would have exercised under the same circumstances. It is a failure to take reasonable care to avoid causing injury or loss to another person or property.

'Probable cause' means that facts and circumstances within a person's knowledge would lead a reasonable person to believe that a suspect has committed, is committing, or is about to commit an offense.

'Providing' means giving, selling, supplying, bartering for, or in any manner furnishing a person with something.

‘Public places’ means places in Dot Lake that are generally open and accessible to all people and includes all public buildings, roads, parks, and public land in the Village of Dot Lake.

‘Recklessly’ A person acts ‘recklessly’ when they deliberately and unjustifiably pursue a course of action while consciously disregarding any risks flowing from such action. A person who intoxicated may not claim diminished responsibility if they deliberately and unjustifiably pursue a course of action while disregarding any risks flowing from such action.

‘Respondent’ is a person against whom a Citation or Petition is filed.

‘Village of Dot Lake’ means the village site which includes tribal, public and private lands; tribal, public and private buildings; roads, trails, and airport; waterways, rivers, and lakes in and around the Village area. Everything within a 10-mile radius of the Dot Lake Tribal Office.

‘Vehicle’ means any motorized or non-motorized means of transportation including automobiles, trucks, motorcycles, bikes, snowmachines, 4-wheelers and ATVs, boats, canoes, dog-sleds and maintenance, and construction equipment.

Section 6. Standard of Proof – Preponderance of the Evidence

In deciding guilt or innocence for violations of this Title, the Dot Lake Tribal Court Judges shall use a ‘preponderance of the evidence’ guideline, meaning that the evidence presented convinced the Judges that the defendant was more likely than not to have committed the offense. The evidence provided reflects that the respondent committed the offense, and is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence offered in opposition to it.

Section 7. Parental and Guardian Responsibilities in Juvenile Cases under the Public Safety Code

A. Appearance in Court: The Court may require parents or guardians to attend hearings involving their juvenile children. The Court may also request that parents or guardians leave the Courtroom to talk with a juvenile without them being present.

B. Fiduciary and Logistical Responsibility: The Court may Order parents or guardians to pay financial obligations incurred by a juvenile such as fines, restitution, counseling and treatment. The Court may Order parents or guardians to provide logistical support to their juvenile children in order to fulfil the sentencing requirements of the Court such as transportation.

C. Contempt of Court:

1. A juvenile may be found in Contempt of Court if they fail to complete the sentence Ordered by the Court
2. Parents or guardians may be found in Contempt of Court if they knowingly interfere with their juvenile child's completion of a sentence Ordered by the Court
3. Parents or guardians may be found in Contempt of Court if they fail to comply with the fiduciary or logistical responsibility listed in B of this Section.

Section 8. Victims' Rights

Any person who has been attacked, harmed, abused, injured, or has suffered property damage or loss has rights as a victim, including:

1. The right to protection from the accused
2. The right to be notified of proceedings

3. The right to speak at proceedings
4. The right to restitution
5. The right to be treated with fairness and respect

Section 9. Severability

If any provision of this Title shall, in the future, be declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid provision shall be severed and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 10. No Waiver of Sovereign Immunity

Nothing in this Title shall waive the sovereign immunity of the Dot Lake Tribe or that of its governmental officers, employees or enterprises.

Section 1. Purpose and Mission

There is a need for enforcement of the Dot Lake Tribal Codes protecting the people, lands, resources and enterprises within the jurisdiction of the Native Village of Dot Lake. In order to fulfill this need, this Chapter hereby establishes the Dot Lake Department of Public Safety, and its powers and duties. The Dot Lake Department of Public Safety shall be organized and operated with the following mission:

1. Preserve peace, maintain order, and promote public safety
2. Treat all persons equally and with respect
3. Reasonable enforcement of the laws of the Tribe
4. Foster an environment of cooperation and trust within our community
5. Use planning to insure efficient and effective operations
6. Incorporate training as a regular part of the Department requirements

Section 2. Powers and Responsibilities of the Department of Public Safety

The Dot Lake Department of Public Safety shall have the responsibility to protect and assist the people of Dot Lake and the power to investigate and enforce Dot Lake Tribal Codes, consistent with the purpose and mission of the Department.

Section 3. Department of Public Safety Officers

A. Officers of the Department: The Dot Lake Department of Public Safety Officers may consist of Village Police Officers, Tribal Police Officers, and cross-deputized State Law Enforcement Officers. Before any officer of the Department may enforce Dot Lake Codes, they shall undergo standard officer applicant screening that may include, but is not limited to:

1. Criminal Background Check: Officers shall submit to a criminal background check. Officers cannot have been convicted of crimes as listed in the federal Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Act of 1990 as amended, listed in Title 3, Chapter 1 of the Dot Lake Domestic Relations Code.
2. Impairments: Officers must take a medical exam that demonstrates that they are free from any physical, mental, visual, hearing, or emotional condition that could adversely impact their ability to serve as a law enforcement officer.

B. Training and Policing Standards: Officers shall meet training and policing standards as set by resolutions of the Dot Lake Tribal Council.

C. Authority: Tribal Officers of the Dot Lake Department of Public Safety Officers shall be authorized to enforce Dot Lake tribal law upon taking the oath of office and may be cross-deputized to enforce Alaska state law by tribal resolution. Non-tribal Officers may be cross-deputized to enforce Dot Lake Tribal Law by tribal resolution.

D. Supervision: The supervisory chain of command for the Department shall be designated by Council resolution.

E. Duties: The duties of Tribal Law Enforcement Officers shall be to generally keep the peace and promote safety by patrolling, participating in search and rescue efforts, and enforcing the provisions of this Title. Additionally, tribal law enforcement Officers may provide fire, emergency medical treatment, water safety, and coordination with other public safety authorities approved by resolution of the Council.

Section 4. Citations

In carrying out the duties to enforce the laws in this Title, the Dot Lake Department of Public Safety shall follow the procedures outlined below in issuing Citations, unless the tribal code being enforced specifically provides for a different enforcement procedure.

A. Issuing Citations and Notifying the Court:

1. Dot Lake Department of Public Safety Officers have the authority to issue a Citation if:

- a. The violation occurs in the presence of the Public Safety Officer; or
- b. When the Officer has reasonable cause to believe an offense has been committed through investigation.
- c. The Officer shall issue Citations within 30 days from when the violation occurred, except under extenuating circumstances.
- d. The Officer shall give a copy of the Citation to the Dot Lake Tribal Court within 3 business days from issuing the Citation.

B. Content of Citations: The Citation shall include:

- 1. A statement listing the Dot Lake Tribal Code that was violated with a brief description of the conduct of the Respondent which led to the violation;
- 2. A statement that the Respondent must respond to the Citation by contacting the Dot Lake Tribal Office within 30 days from the date of service of the Citation and give notice of intent to contest the citation if they wish to;
- 3. That the Respondent must appear in the Dot Lake Tribal Court for sentencing, or to contest the Citation; and
- 4. That failure of the Respondent to respond to a Citation or failure to appear in person or telephonically at a hearing of the Dot Lake Tribal Court may result in an adverse finding against the person and the Court may issue a sentence

C. Serving Citations:

1. Officers, or servers designated by the Dot Lake Tribal Court, may serve Citations on Respondents by personal service, or, by mailing the Citation by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Mailed Citations shall be addressed to the person at his or her mailing address if known, or such other place which is believed to give the occupant or owner actual notice of the Citation.
2. Service is deemed given on the date a person was personally served or when the certified or registered mail is either delivered and a certified mail receipt is returned signed.
3. If a person cannot be found to give personal service, or if the certified mail receipt is returned unsigned, the Court may use an alternate service process.
 - a. The process shall be a diligent inquiry, meaning that the Court tried hard to locate a person.
 - b. The process may include, but is not limited to, questioning friends and family, questioning any employers, checking online social media, vehicle registrations, utility companies, checking state court records, checking jail facilities.
 - c. If the Respondent is still not located after a diligent inquiry, the Court may hold a hearing on the case 30 days after the close of the diligent inquiry.

D. Citations as Final Determinations: A Citation represents an official determination that an offense has been committed. The determination is final unless the person gives notice to contest the Citation to the Court within 30 days of the service of the Citation.

Section 5. Investigations

Dot Lake Department of Public Safety Officers are authorized to investigate offenses through interviews and evidence collection within the purpose and mission of the Dot Lake Department of Public Safety and the Dot Lake Public Safety Code.

A. Personal Identification:

1. A person who is reasonably suspected of committing an offense and is stopped by an Officer is required to identify his or herself by providing the Officer his or her name, place of residence, and date of birth.
2. If requested by the Officer, the person shall also produce an identification card, such as a driver's license, State Id card, or tribal card.
3. If the person is unable or unwilling to identify his or herself, the Officer may detain the person until a positive identification has been made.

B. Search:

1. Officers may search a person or area and seize evidence if it is in plain sight, or at the scene of an incident in order to protect the safety of persons at the scene.
2. Officers shall otherwise not search persons or buildings for evidence without consent, or, without a search warrant issued by the Dot Lake Tribal Court as described in Chapter 3 of this Title.

C. Seizing and Confiscating Evidence:

1. Law enforcement officers are authorized to seize and confiscate materials used in violations of this Title as specified in B of this Section.
2. Such materials shall be considered evidence and shall be properly recorded and secured in tribal facilities pending return, disposition, or disposal, as appropriate, upon resolution of any Citation.

Section 6. Appear in the Dot Lake Tribal Court for Citations

All Citations issued shall require a Respondent to appear, telephonically or in person, in the Dot Lake Tribal Court for sentencing or to contest the Citation if they so choose.

- A. Sentencing Hearing: If the person does not wish to contest the Citation, the Court may hold a sentencing circle or hearing and sentence the person according to the sentencing guidance of Chapter 4 of this Title.
- B. Contest the Citation: If the person wishes to contest the Citation, the Dot Lake Tribal Court shall hold a hearing to determine guilt or innocence.
- C. Court Procedures: For all hearings held in enforcing this Title, the Dot Lake Tribal Court shall follow provisions of this Title, and guidance provided the Dot Lake Judicial Code, Chapter 2, Dot Lake Court General Procedures.

CHAPTER 3 SEARCH WARRANTS

Section 2. Procedures for Issuing Search Warrants.....	16
A. Affidavit Supporting Search Warrant Application	16
B. Application for Tribal Search Warrants	16
C. Issuing Search Warrants	17

Section 1. Search Warrants and the Indian Civil Rights Act

The Dot Lake Tribal Court shall comply with the Indian Civil Rights Act (25 U.S.C. Sec. 1301 – 03) in requiring tribal Search Warrants when necessary to search property or persons in search of evidence.

Section 2. Procedures for Issuing Search Warrants

A. Affidavit Supporting Search Warrant Application:

1. Officers of the Dot Lake Department of Public Safety seeking a Search Warrant shall complete a written Affidavit Supporting a Search Warrant Application.
2. The Affidavit shall describe in detail the facts and circumstances describing why a Search Warrant is needed.
3. Affidavit Supporting Search Warrant Application forms may be obtained from the Clerk of the Dot Lake Tribal Court.

B. Application for Tribal Search Warrants:

1. Officers of the Dot Lake Department of Public Safety seeking a Search Warrant shall submit an Application for Tribal Search Warrant to the Dot Lake Tribal Court Clerk or First Chief along with the Affidavit Supporting a Search Warrant Application.

2. The Application shall state specific buildings, locations, vehicles, and persons to be searched and the items to be searched for.
3. The Application shall state the general hours the search may be conducted.
4. The Officer shall swear that there is probable cause to issue a Search Warrant as justified in the supporting Affidavit.
5. Application forms may be obtained from the Clerk of the Dot Lake Tribal Court.

C. Issuing Search Warrants:

1. Upon receipt of an Affidavit and Application for a Search Warrant, the Clerk or Chief shall contact at least two judges of the Dot Lake Tribal Court to review the documents.
2. The Judges must be convinced that the Officer applying for the Search Warrant has “probable cause” to search, meaning that facts and circumstances described on the forms would lead a reasonable person to believe that a suspect has committed, is committing, or is about to commit an offense.
3. If they are so convinced, at least 2 Dot Lake Tribal Court Judges shall sign the Search Warrant.
4. Search warrants shall specifically state the person to be searched, vehicles and specific property to be searched, items to be searched for, and the general hours the search may take place.

F. Counseling.....	22
G. Restitution	22
H. Tribal Probation	22
I. Traditional Activities	22
J. Other Restorative Justice Sentences	23

Section 1. Sentencing Guidelines

The Dot Lake Tribal Court, either through a panel of Judges or through a Justice Circle, has the authority to Order sentences for violations of the provisions of this Public Safety Code for those who do not contest, or upon a guilty finding under the standard of a ‘preponderance of evidence’ for those who do contest. In ordering sentences, the Court shall adhere to the following guidelines:

- A. Restorative Justice: The Court shall Order sentences under that are designed to protect victims first, and that are restorative in nature. Generally, the intention should be to:

1. Hold Respondents to be accountable for what they did
2. Encourage Respondents to acknowledge the impact their choices have on others
3. To acknowledge harm done to victims and recognize their needs
4. To begin the process of repairing relationships in the community
5. To develop appropriate sentencing recommendations for Respondents to make positive behavior change and to make better choices
6. To restore community confidence in Respondent, and provide the Respondent with a good path forward

B. Sentence Equally:

1. Even though sentences may be adjusted to fit individual circumstances, the Dot Lake Tribal Court shall strive to Order equitable sentences for offenses committed.
2. The Court should refer to prior cases to assist in ordering equitable sentences.

Section 2. Options for Sentences

Unless the Dot Lake Tribal Code or Dot Lake Tribal Court Fee Schedule sets a specific penalty for a particular civil violation, the Dot Lake Tribal Court Judges, either by themselves or through a Justice Circle, shall determine the specific Orders for a particular case. The Judges may choose from, but not limited to, the following options:

A. Fines:

1. Fines for violation of the Dot Lake Public Safety Code shall not exceed $5,000 or equivalent work sentence.
2. Fines may increase for successive violations of the same ordinance.
3. The Court may garnish wages, permanent fund or dividend checks, or confiscate property in the case of unpaid fines.

4. Fines shall go through the Tribe's general funds and into a fund designated for the Dot Lake Tribal Court.

B. Community Service: Community work service should be tailored to fit the particular individuals and circumstances. Judges may Order a certain number of community service hours, but should specify what type of work a Respondent must do.

1. Work sentences may include cutting wood, hauling water, cleaning, or other chores for people in need of assistance in the village, the church, community hall, or tribal buildings. Sentences may include working in the school, building maintenance or repair, hauling and pumping fuel, cleaning up trash in the Village, or other types of community work. Community service sentences shall benefit the needy, the village residents as a whole, the Elders, the victim of an offense, the church, or the youth.
2. The Dot Lake Tribal Court shall not Order work sentences that only benefit themselves personally or other tribal government officials. Work sentences shall not displace persons employed in the Village or employment opportunities.
3. Work sentences shall be completed within 60 days unless otherwise directed by the Court.
4. Persons have the option of work sentences instead of paying fines or fees only if the Court specifically permits it. Community work shall an amount per hour towards fines and fees as posted in the Court fees and fine schedule.

C. Impounding Vehicles: The Dot Lake Tribal Government may impound vehicles as defined in Chapter 1, Section 4 of this Title, that are used in driving while intoxicated, reckless driving, or for contempt of court.

1. To get a vehicle out of impound, the owner shall pay a fee according to the fee schedule set by the Dot Lake Tribal Court which shall increase with each time a person's vehicle is impounded.
2. Except in cases of vehicle theft, the owner is ultimately responsible for the impound fee even if the owner was not involved with the civil violation.
3. If the vehicle is one that requires a driver's license, the owner shall provide proof of insurance and a current Alaska driver's license to retrieve the vehicle out of impound.
4. The Dot Lake Tribal Government is not liable for any damages to vehicles while they are impounded.
5. Further guidelines for vehicles impounded for driving while intoxicated are provided in Chapter 5, Alcohol Regulation, of this Title.

CI. Removal from the Village:

1. An Order of temporary or permanent removal from Dot Lake may be used to protect the Village and/or Village residents from physical harm, or for repeat Respondents who bootleg alcohol or sell illegal drugs.
2. The length of time a person is removed shall be determined by the severity of the case or upon the completion of assessments and treatments.
3. Persons who are removed may have conditions placed upon their return such as not to consume alcohol, or not to possess a firearm.

CII. Treatment: The Tribal Court may Order assessments for drug and alcohol abuse, and/or mental health and may require that the recommendations of the assessments be completed. The Court may Order other types of treatment such as Anger Management. The Court shall consider the cost to the person and possible waiting periods for getting into treatment programs.

F. Counseling:

1. The Judges of the Dot Lake Tribal Court may counsel persons brought before them in a helpful spirit.
2. The Dot Lake Tribal Court may bring Elders or any other appropriate persons into the Dot Lake Courtroom to counsel people.
3. The Judges may order counseling by behavioral health aides or other professional counselors.
4. The Judges may order peer counselling or counseling by specified Elders.

G. Restitution:

1. The Tribal Court may Order a Respondent to make restitution to his or her victims. Restitution may be in the form of payment of money, replacing and/or repairing property, and apologies.
2. Restitution payment shall go through the Dot Lake Court Clerk.
3. Non-monetary restitution shall be supervised by a person as designated by the Dot Lake Tribal Court.

H. Tribal Probation: The Court may Order a period of tribal probation within which the Respondents must check in on a regular basis with specified tribal staff, refrain from drinking alcohol or using illegal drugs, and other conditions such as mandatory attendance at school if the person is of school age.

I. Traditional Activities: The Dot Lake Tribal Court may Order a person who violated the Dot Lake Public Safety Code to participate in seasonally appropriate traditional activities such as fish camps, trapping, hunting, culture camps, and other tribally sponsored or approved traditional activities.

J. Other Restorative Justice Sentence: The Dot Lake Tribal Court may create any reasonable and equitable sentence that is intended to be restorative, and fitting to the offense committed, that will provide accountability for the Respondent, and restitution and healing to the victim, Respondent, and community of Dot Lake.

D. Report Violations	58

Section 1. Background and Intention

The Athabascan people of the Upper Tanana have a tragic history with epidemics wiping out entire villages. Historic trauma from those events still effect our present generations. The Coronavirus Disease 2019 (Covid-19) presents a clear and present danger to repeat this tragedy as it threatens the health and safety of our vulnerable tribal members, esteemed Elders, and all members of the Village of Dot Lake. It is in the best interest of the Dot Lake Tribe to take all measures necessary to prevent the spread of Covid – 19 in the Village of Dot Lake to protect the health and safety of the members of the Tribe.

Section 2. Alaska Covid-19 Health Mandates

Under the authority of the Public Health Disaster Emergency Declaration signed on March 11, 2020, Governor Michael Dunleavy issued Covid-19 health mandates aimed to prevent the spread of the highly contagious novel corona virus to protect the public health of Alaskans. These mandates are subject to periodic reevaluation, amendments, additions, and lifting.

It is in the best interest of the Village of Dot Lake to adopt the Covid-19 mandates applicable to the Village of Dot Lake and to assist the State of Alaska in enforcing all Covid-19 health mandates applicable to the Village of Dot Lake, particularly those relating to travel restrictions and social distancing.

Section 3. Covid-19 Mandates Regarding In-State Travel Restrictions

In order to prevent introduction of the virus to Alaska communities such as Dot Lake, or to slow, and otherwise disrupt the spread of the virus that causes Covid-19, it is imperative to minimize intrastate travel between communities. This is covered in Covid-19 Mandates 11 and 12.

No persons shall enter into Dot Lake Village from another community except when necessary to support critical infrastructure or residents who have left the Village for critical personal needs.

- 1. Critical Infrastructure: The Alaska Covid-19 health mandates define critical infrastructure in Attachment A (Alaska Critical Workforce Infrastructure) of the mandates. Examples are first responders and persons providing essential governmental functions (e.g. services needed to ensure the continuing operation of government agencies and provide for the health, safety and welfare of the public.

Persons meeting the critical infrastructure definition shall have a travel plan to enter Dot Lake Village on file with the ak.covidplans@ak-prepared.com.

2. Critical Personal Needs: Residents who leave the village and wish to return (without a 14-day quarantine) may only leave for critical personal needs. Critical personal needs include:

- a. To go to work in critical infrastructure jobs
- b. Buying, selling, or delivering groceries and home goods
- c. Obtaining fuel for vehicles or residential needs
- d. Transporting family members for out-of-home care
- e. Essential health needs, or for purposes of child custody exchanges
- f. Receiving essential health care, providing essential health care to a family member
- g. Obtaining other important goods
- h. Engaging in subsistence activities

Section 4. Quarantine

All persons who come into the Village of Dot Lake other than critical infrastructure workers and Dot Lake residents returning from essential need errands, shall self-quarantine for 14 days under the guidelines provided in the State COVID-19 Health Mandates or present evidence of a negative COVID test conducted within the prior 24 hours or a positive COVID antibody test.

Section 5. Social Distancing

A. Stay at Home: All residents, except for those engaged in essential health care services, public government services, essential business activities, and critical personal needs shall remain at their place of residence and practice social distancing when they are outside of their homes such as walking around the Village under Health Mandate 11.

B. 10 Person Limit on Gathering Size: No gatherings of more than 10 people may take place. If a gathering of up to 10 people does take place, they must be 6 feet apart from each other under Health Mandate 7.

C. Maintaining 6-foot Distance: All persons when outside of their homes shall practice social distancing. Social distancing is defined as maintaining a distance of 6 feet or greater from any individuals with whom you do not currently reside.

Section 6. Enforcement of this Chapter

A. Dot Lake Tribal Court: The provisions of this Chapter may be enforced through the Dot Lake Tribal Court by Petition or Citation to the Court as provided under Chapter 1 of this Title.

B. Cross-Deputized Tribal Officer: The provisions of this Chapter may be enforced by citation directly to the state of Alaska judicial system by a cross-deputized tribal officer.

C. State Law Enforcement Officer: The provisions of this Chapter may be enforced by citation of a state law enforcement officer through their own observation and investigation or by evidence provided by the Dot Lake Tribal Government.

D. Report Violations: All observed violations of the State Mandates shall be reported to investigations@alaska.gov.
